Something the UK Car Show scene has been missing, a brand new, exiting show, at a brand new venue, for all to attend. 'Gravity' is just such an event, and is set to be one of Europe's best events for 2016, with cars travelling from all over Europe, both indoor and outdoor show areas, trophies, live demo's and much more, this is set to be a good one! This awesome new event is taking place on 17th July, slap bang in the middle of summer, but the indoor and outdoor venue is set for any weather. With the venue being the most central point in the UK possible, Stoneleigh NAEC in Coventry, people will be coming from every corner of the country as well as Europe. This show is not confined to VAG or Jap cars like most other shows these days, this is something for everyone to get their teeth into, whether you've got Jap, German, crazy Supercar or somewhere in-between you'll all be welcome.
