Nestled in the heart of the Town Centre, this extremely large one bedroom ground floor apartment is set on a quiet private development in easy walking distance of Crawley train station, bus station and all of the local amenities. The property comprises a large double bedroom, very modern ensuite bathroom which is fully tiled and has both a bath with a high mounted shower head and screen to suit everyone`s personal tastes. The kitchen is well appointed, with a range of beech fitted units, and all appliances included as standard. The lounge is extremely large, with a separate seating and dining area possible due to the sheer size of the room. Soft luxurious carpets compliment the modern neutral decor, which is accented by the abundance of natural light which benefits this property throughout the day. The property is furnished to an extremely high executive standard with leather sofas and glass dining furniture. Parking is allocated on site with several visitors spaces available within the well-lit parking area to the front of the building amidst the well maintained landscaped communal.
