"Drinks are served", are they make any afternoon or evening a delight. Syrups of all kinds are used commonly to create an array of tasty beverages, which can be classified as a cocktail or a mocktail, depending on the drink's alcohol content. That being said, the ingredients other than alcohol, including fruit syrup give the beverage distinctive flavor and character. Using Micosta's fruit syrups in your mixology scheme allows you to create unique concoctions with all natural ingredients, enhancing flavor elimination all the synthetics such as artificial color and flavorings, and preservatives which are added. No white sugar is added either. To Know more visit : Micosta
