SOFA 15 months old , My son jumped on back of one chair and collapsed abit but as you can see from pic (second chair in from left) it don't effect sofa . also I put separate pic up of the chair my son broke and you can see the White arrow pointing to the part he broke . I did cut at the back (you can not see this) and was going to fix but in the end never got round to it as don't effect the sofa at all . But I'm sure it's easy to fix . Also as seen in the pic wax was spilled down the side but again never really bothered me as I could not see it as on the side so was up against the wall . I have had sofa for 15 months old it looks great and is very comfy . It is a very big CORNOR sofa so bare this in mind . It does come apart like a jigsaw so can be moved by a van . Collection will be down to yourself ! . I would like cash on collection . This is a great looking sofa and very comfy . Has a full recliner one end and a large lay down chair the other end . DOES COME APART FOR COLLECTION . YOU WOULD NEED A VAN . BUYER TO COLLECT.. THIS COST ME NEARLY £250 Dimensions
