I am looking for two kittens who will be ready to come to our loving home from mid to late August (when we are back from holiday). I have no preference about the colours or sexes (although would prefer them to look different to each other) but I am looking for friendly, playful and bold kittens who love a cuddle and ideally, who are used to children as we have two. We offer a large home with plenty to explore and a garden which is surrounded by safe, open countryside nowhere near any main roads. I would love to be the first to view a litter and be able to make a choice from all of the kittens before any get reserved. Price specified is a guideline as there was no option to leave it blank. I would love to hear from anyone who can!
