This would be an excellent way to start with a trio of bonded bunnies, 2 of them neutered. the white and the tri dutch are both lop bucks and all 3 are 6 months old and siblings. the doe is not spayed and has up ears! £100 for all 3 and as neutering is from £50 you wont have the cost of buying rabbits and vets fees on top. the doe may need spaying later. Would like to find a home for all 3 but if i am not successful then i may have to split them up in August but want to give them a chance for a bit. they had a lot of room in a shed so need space and have not been picked up as much as they should but i have had no problem with any of them. they arent rescues as such as they weren't neglected or mistreated but need homing as the family have had to move house so they are young healthy bunnies. Will do a clearer picture
