ARTISTRY BRAND EXPERIENCE Do you know your skin type and it's specific needs?

Are you using the right products to keep your skin healthy, feeling good and looking great?

Why not come along to one of my fun ARTISTRY brand experiences for some drinks and nibbles, and find out! I will have lots of products for you to sample, some insightful quick quizzes to find out your skin type/needs and your skincare personality. I will also have a Skin Analyser Magnifier Machine available to provide a free skin analysis for all my guests. At the end of the experience, you will know your skin type and it's specific requirements, as well as being armed with helpful skincare advice and tips to assist you in looking and feeling your best. I hold an ARTISTRY Brand Experience on the following dates, so if you can't make this one, then I'm sure you can find a date that suites you. Saturday 16 July 2016

Saturday 10 September 2016

Saturday 8 October 2016

Saturday 19 November 2016

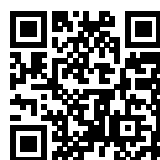

Saturday 3 December 2016 Why not hold your own Brand Experience? If you think your friends would also enjoy the experience, then why not host your own brand experience. Invite some friends round for some drinks and nibbles and I will turn up with products and the SAM machine, and do the rest. It doesn't cost anything, just a few drinks and nibbles and will hopefully be a lot of fun. You could turn it into an amazing party by adding a mini-facial for yourself and quests. The cost of the mini-facial is usually £20, but I will only charge your friends a special rate of £10 each and you will get yours for free for hosting the event. What better way to try out the products? To book onto the next Brand Experience or to hold your own, call Sandy: Tel: 07927 909782 07927 9097...(click to reveal full phone number)
