For sale, BH Emotion EasyGo Volt. Cost £1,299 just 2 months ago and it's done less than 2 miles. I bought it because it is very light and needs very little maintenance but my previous bike was a throttle and that is what I really want. Weighing in at only 18kg, the EasyGo Volt is one of the most powerful yet lightweight folding ebikes on the market. It's motor, the 'EasyGo RDS' is derived from the legendary NEO RDS that features on many of BH's top notch electric bike range, noted for its performance and power. What's more, its large and enviable 52 toothed chain-wheel means ultimate gearing, going both up and down hills. The most noticeable feature of the BH Emotion EasyGo Volt is that it doesn't even look like an electric bike! It's ultra compact battery is barely noticeable, being cleverly hidden in the seat post saddle bag. Asking price £1,050. or very nearest.
