With regret i am having to sell my day/camper van. The van has only covered just under 37000 miles and shows when driven.

It benefits from having a well thought out semi- conversion,ideal for camping holidays and beach days but is still suitable for practical use as a van. With 2 side windows (1 opener) carpeted and insulated side panels with oak effect karndean flooring, with carpeted storage/seating, it's practical and hard wearing but also looks great and comfortable, it also has a temporary bed /seating which can be hidden away giving more room for living.

In black metallic the van looks great and often gets compliments, it has been remapped and drives well with good MPG also. This van is ideal for somebody wanting a practical sleeper van with the option of having a practical van too and is ready for a personal touch by the next.
