We provide live-in care services in Kent and Sussex, allowing our clients the comfort and familiarity of remaining in their own homes. Are you considering residential care? Have you thought about how you could return to or remain at home and be looked after by our qualified and police checked carers in the comfort and familiarity of your own home? Live-in care is a realistic and affordable alternative to residential care - and not nearly as expensive as you might think. The cost of live-in care is often less than a residential placement, with the added advantage of one to one care. At Domus Live-in Care we can provide a wide range of live-in care solutions to meet your needs. Whether you are looking for long term ongoing care and support or a temporary arrangement we can help. We would be delighted to come and visit you for a free, no obligation assessment and tell you in detail about how we can offer. We offer a fully managed service and our carers will support you with: - medication - personal care - housekeeping - meal preparation - shopping - outings and appointments. Our carers are: -personally recruited by us - police checked - fully referenced - carefully selected to match your specific
