Superbly situated next to the Notting Hill underground station, this one bedroom apartment vacation rental in London is ideal for those who want to live like locals. It is located on Pembridge Gardens between Pembridge Road and Notting Hill Gate in the Notting Hill area, and resides on the ground floor of a Victorian building - great for those desiring easy access and additional convenience. The welcoming exterior of the building will draw you in with its warm presence and reflects the interior of the one bedroom apartment for rent. To allow for extra comfort and privacy, a security system is in place throughout the building.

Walking into your awaiting accommodation, you will find a hallway leading to the bedroom and living room/kitchen area. The bedroom is compact and modern, with a double bed agreeable for a restful night and a window to allow in the crisp London air. Storage under the bed is available to house your items. The walls are painted red and artwork hangs on a wall above the bed. Fresh sheets are included, and two lamps sit on either side of the bed. The living room is decorated in a contemporary style and features a south-facing large window with blinds taking up the better part of an entire wall. This characteristic proves enticing to daydreamers and lovers of London streets alike, as it faces a street set in the attractive Notting Hill area. An area rug lies in the center of the living room and a sofa bed is settled in front of the east-facing wall. Also incorporated in this room are two small tables on both sides of the sofa bed, a variety of lamps for extra lighting, and contemporary art scattered about the walls. The well-kept open kitchen includes an oven, toaster, fridge, and dishwasher, while the bathroom offers a shower, sink, toilet and fresh towels.

1 Bedroom Rental in Notting Hill. HOLIDAY LET

Notting Hill is just one of London's beautiful neighborhoods, and this vacation rental allows you to experience it! Just a few minutes from the corner of Pembridge Gardens and Notting Hill Gate, this variety of amenities, cafes, bars, clubs, and sports facilities such as antique dealers, record shops, and vintage stores. The historic Notting Hill Carnival is held in the Gate area, and the short walk to the apartment is perfect for those who seek to encounter London natives, this area is not yet brimming with tourists, though it is lively with culture and music. Within walking distance is the Notting Hill Arts Club, a popular pub favored by locals. For a bite to eat, you may want to take the short walk to Gate Restaurant, a locally popular restaurant/bar/club. Available to visit by public transportation or a scenic walk through Notting Hill are the streets of Portobello Road and Ladbroke Grove. Both are lined with record shops, bars, pubs, and restaurants, and have been associated with lovers of punk and reggae, artists, writers, musicians, and the alternative scene. Look out for the blue plaque dispersed throughout the neighborhoods – they give recognition to famous and important people who have lived in the area. On Saturdays, check out the popular Portobello Road Market, famous for its second-hand clothes and antiques. If you wish to party like a Brit, visit this area in the late summer -- on the last weekend of August, the entire area of Notting Hill is taken over by Europe's biggest street party, Carnival!

The Notting Hill Gate underground station is just outside of the apartment and is on the Central, District, and Circle lines. It is on the route of the 27, 28, 31, 52, 70, 94, 148, 328, 390, 452, N28, N31, N52, and N207 buses. If you are running late, black cabs are available on the street to take you anywhere you wish to go!
