This one bedroom London apartment is located at the intersection of Gatliff Road & Ebury Bridge Road in Chelsea, known for its artistic and bohemian influence. The apartment is on the 7th floor of 12 (6th American floor) of a modern building watched by a full-time doorman. You will find amenities in the building like a laundry, a dryer, a washer but also a gym (at an extra charge), a steam room and a sauna. The apartment is accessible with an elevator. In addition, you'll have access to a communal dock area and an underground parking space.

The modern one bedroom apartment is fully furnished and has a nice living room. The brown wood floor and the thick carpet contrast with the white walls which make the place cozy. The two bay windows will provide you an access to the balcony and offer a stunning view on the skyline. You will have a TV and a dining glass table for four. The kitchen is open to the living room and you will find all the features to spend a great stay like a dishwasher, an oven and a toaster. The bedroom is accommodated with a double bed and closet space for your convenience. You'll find big mirrors as decoration in the modern bathroom.

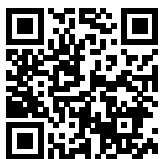

Along the River Thames, this one bedroom apartment is located at the heart of Chelsea, which has always been an inspiring neighborhood for artists in London. You'll find many art galleries like the Chelsea Futurespace (approx. 30feet/ 10meters) and the Saatchi Gallery (approx. 0.8mile/ 1.3km) with its contemporary art. You can also have a brunch at Bluebird cafe (approx. 1.4mile/ 2.4km) or grab a burger in Tommi's Burger Joint (approx. 1.4mile/2.4km).

Only 0.2 mile away (approx. 320 meters), you can take a walk in the 18th-century Ranelagh Gardens with its Chinese Pavilion and its fountain of mirrors. It's also the site of the annual Chelsea Flower Show. You could enjoy a walk when you cross the Chelsea Bridge, or you could have a picnic on the grassy bank of the river. The Battersea Park (approx. 0.8mile/ 1.3km) is a large park with a lake, a market and a playground. It's a great place to spend a day with your family.

How to commute:
 Subway: The Sloane Square station (0.6 mile/ 1km) offers the services of the Circle and District lines.
 Buses: Battersea Hospital station (0.2 mile/ 1.2km) is served by the 44, 137, 360, 452, N44 and N137 lines.
