Countrywide Moves is a family run business providing you with a full range of removal services to suit your requirements.

Our friendly professional staff are here for you every step of the way and will ensure your move goes smoothly using the years of industry experience we have.

Whether you are moving to the house next door or to the other side of the country we are confident you will join our long list of our satisfied customers.

We are a removal company of many years experience in the business. All our services can be tailored to meet your individual requirements for house removals in Buckinghamshire and the surrounding area. Whatever your removals requirements, we can help – we are specialists in both house removals and office removals. We offer a full removal and delivery service nationwide for all our customers, whether old or new.

We are small enough to really care for our customers' individual needs, but big enough to cope with their.
