A colour monograph of the work of perhaps one of the world's greatest wildlife artists, this book attempts to do justice to Liljefors' paintings. The book includes his fox paintings, perhaps the best examples of his pure animal portraiture. Martha Hill is picture editor of "Audubon" magazine. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title. Book Description Doubleday. Hardcover. ~ Sweden's great realist landscape artist beautiful cover art.

From DJ flap - I paint animal portraits. That is how Bruno Liljefors characterize his work. His paintings are real animals with unique personalities. Each one is a different individual; some are young, some are old, one is confident, another fearful. His has truly the peerless eye. First page has owner's name plate stuck in.
