Location South East, West Sussex

I am looking for two Siamese kittens (or Siamese X as long as they have the colour points) who will be ready to come to our loving home from mid to late August when we are back from holiday. I have no preference about the sexes but I would their points to be different to each other. I would also be interested in one kitten being a dark block colour all over and the other having points. We offer a large home with plenty to for them explore. I would love to be the first to view a litter and be able to make a choice from all of the kittens before any get reserved, but I'm open to any who are friendly, playful and love a cuddle. Price specified is a guideline as there was no option to leave it blank. I am happy to travel across the South East and would love to hear from anyone who can!
