I currently hold a contract with a hotel in Brighton providing entertainment for the weekly coach tours. I have 4 nights a week (mon, tues, weds, thurs) due to my increasing work load I am looking for someone to work with me and cover some of these nights through each month going forward. I will give ample notice of nights I need covering and work with you to offer you the nights ideal for you. All the equipment will be set up and ready to use (all you need is your music) timings are from 8.30pm til 10.30pm. It's a nice easy going midweek gig. I'm looking for someone who can work with me long term as I have had this contract now for 4 years and I hold a very strong relationship with the hotel. I can offer you a regular monthly cluster of midweek gigs. If your interested I'd be very happy to speak with you further. Looking to start this as soon as possible really. Kind Regards Ian
