

Great idea for hen parties, birthdays or a girls night in. As I am fully mobile, I will arrive at your door fully equipped to provide a relaxing 'at home' pamper experience for you and your friends. What could be better than good company, good food, drinks, and a massage or facial of your choice? A great way to catch up and relax with the chance to slip into your robes and slippers for the rest of the evening for pure pampered fun. What Happens at a Pamper Party?

I will arrive at your door with all the equipment required to provide your pre-selected treatments. I can set up in bedrooms, a dining room, the living room or even a kitchen (space permitting). The treatments will follow a pre-arranged schedule so as your guests go off for their treatments, the rest of the group are left to catch up on the gossip. Your guests will emerge from their treatments relaxed and revitalised.

Treatments Available

Massages and facials can be tailored to fit 30 minutes time slots. I am totally flexible; we can work together to design a package of relaxing treatments for you and your friends. Prices are quoted based on number of guests and treatments required. As a guide, a typical party of four people having a 30 minutes treatment each, would be £30 per person. This includes time spent setting up and clearing away, as well as a 10 minutes break between guests (to clear up after their treatment and set up for next treatment). The price also includes my aftercare advice leaflets and skincare tips. To find out more, or to book, call Sandy: Tel: 07927 909782 07927 9097...(click to reveal full phone number)
