

Arthur's warriors, he is revealed to be Mordred, illegitimate son of King Arthur and also the victim of plots by his father and Lancelot. He comes to his own end, and eventually, Lancelot, who is in love with Guinevere, Arthur's beloved, is chosen to be king of Britain. He and Arthur battle a second Sagramor, but Lancelot, not being his enemy, is not in the battle and is killed.

A gritty, dark tale, Mordred is an Arthurian-era drama, heavily influenced by the earliest legends of Mordred who is traditionally seen as King Arthur's arch-nemesis, and illegitimate son. In the earlier legends, Mordred is much more of an ambiguous character, and not pure evil as in modern re-tellings, this film tells of the legends, from Mordred's point of view. This drama is set in the 530s, against the backdrop of the Saxon invasions, heavily influenced by Celtic legends and Druidic traditions, and the earliest tales of Arthur, and his.	Mordred - Arthur show at the Palace
---	---

Mordred - Arthurian stage show at the Palace Theatre, Paignton, Devon
by Celtic hms of earlier
re-telling ed by 592