The Bailey motorhome has really come of age with the introduction of the Bailey Approach Autograph. This new range benefits from enhanced specifications, a remarkable look on both the inside and out, whilst retaining the most popular elements of its predecessor. All models are built using a patented Alu-Tech body shell, including a GRP outer-skin for extra durability. Along with market-leading thermal insulation, owners of this range can feel safe holidaying all year round. From the spacious lounge at the front to the large rear bathroom, you have plenty of space and all the facilities you would need.
