I am an exceptionally motivated, hardworking professional with many years' experience within the plastering industry in the United Kingdom. I pride myself in the quality of my workmanship & endeavour to deliver a consistent level of excellence & customer satisfaction in all my plastering projects. I've also worked with trade professionals who specialize in decorative plaster mould cornice & coving finishes as well as renovation of older properties. My experience has provided me with many opportunities to expand my abilities & heightened my awareness working on many projects to develop ideas to improve the desired finish with my customers. I always ensure my quotations are very competitive, given with a friendly manner with 100% customer satisfaction my ultimate goal every time. My clients requirements are my focus & I am happy to advise when required. I take great pride in transforming projects with a brand new skin to invigorate customer dwellings. ;
