2002 Renault Megane Privilege convertible for sale. 2ltr petrol, manual, Good tyres, alloys in good condition. 126,749 miles. MOT till July 2017. Good runner although the exhaust is blowing and there is some rust on the rear wheel arches. Everything else seems to work including the air conditioning and electric roof. Can't tell you anything more about this car as only bought it off a neighbour yesterday as it has just been stood. Was given no service history. Needs some TLC but a bargain at the price. I've bought a few cars in my time and this seems to be a good little runner. A type of car which you could buy and run for a couple of years or really put your time into it and bring it back to life.
