Hi there! My name's Ella and I'm sixteen years old. I'm currently looking for a babysitting/nanny/mothers help job! I have 8 years of childcare experience as I massively helped my parents bring up my younger brothers. I am patient, loving and very maternal. I am a massive animal lover so I'm willing to help out with any pets you may have. I've also had experience with special needs children, looking after children with autism, downs syndrome and spina bifida. I am happy to look after children from the age of 3 months onwards. I can look after disabled children, but I can not do catheter changes etc. I'm home schooled so I can do any day along with school runs etc, I also can do evenings and weekend jobs whenever needed. I can do basic cooking and housework, I will participate in age appropriate activities with your child and I was also in the top 5% of my year group at school so I am happy to help with any homework. I also know basic first aid. If you or someone you know are looking for a babysitter/nanny/mothers help for your child/children, then get in touch! You can either message me on here or email me on click to
