Unmechanical: Extended Email address for the PSN account will be changed to a default address and password, which will be given to you to change to whatever you like. You will fully own the account. The Playstation network profile was created on 22/05/15, hence the large game collection. If you would like any proof of any games in particular, I will find a way to do that for you. Selling my console and profile as I require a new laptop. I am also happy to trade this package for a laptop, subject to it's specification. Any questions, please feel free to ask. Texts and Emails always welcome, but I am not always available to answer.
