Quality, affordable lessons with friendly experienced French tutor in Kent will help you or your child learn French or Spanish at all levels (beginners, bilingual children, Common Entrance Exams, GCSE, A level and IB), for revision classes, support, conversation, written work. Start a new hobby whilst keeping your brain active, brush up your French or Spanish before a holiday I have been teaching since 2001 in both selective (grammar school and independent schools) and non-selective schools for twelve years, and I am CRB checked. I also have experience of private tuitions (children from the age of 6 and adults) for: French up to A level Spanish to GCSE Eleven Plus and Common Entrance exams. I enjoy teaching and am considered to be caring, enthusiastic, friendly and patient. I find one-to-one teaching very rewarding and try to make sure that learning takes place in a relaxed but studious situation and I tailor my lessons to meet the individual needs of my students. I adapt my lesson to pupils' level, personal needs and learning styles and make learning fun and enjoyable. My aim is to help your child gain confidence, knowledge and understanding. ;
