This unusual 1960's matching bedroom set comprises of a Dressing table, a 3 drawer chest and a double door wardrobe. the front and top surfaces are finished in a high gloss Formica with a Porta-Fleck paint to the sides and legs. This furniture is in excellent condition, it was purchased in 60's for my wife as a teenager, only used for 5 years, and has been in a spare bedroom ever since, unused. The wardrobe has the original keys, also the robe and the 3 drawer chest has a quilted cushion feature panel. The plastic light covers on the dressing table have become brittle over time but retain their.
