The notes I am selling now are what is left from my first batch the price is low because the notes are not perfect but they will be passed very easily in busy markets, bars, pubs and clubs! • Paper. 100% cotton and is very nice • Print. I have one of the best consumer printers on the market and use the best ink. The detail and fine print are very good. When directly compared to an original there is a slight difference. The original small text is super sharp and mine comes close but is not quite as clear. I am working on perfecting this. • Colour. GOOD. The purple in the original is quite hard to match but again I'm working on it! • Security strip. The silver dotted line on the rear is perfect. I have another strip imbedded in the paper. So that when held up to light the dotted line goes solid. • Hologram strip. It's very nice! The silver part is near perfect and the holographic symbols are also great. These notes have been aged a little so strip is a little worn but nothing major. • Watermark. I spent a lot of time on my watermark. on these notes i would say it is the weakest part of the note but thats why they are so cheap.. I am still perfecting this and I'm sure that I am close! • UV. NOT YET.. My notes will have the UV fibres on the front and rear and the number 20 on the front at the top. This is not easy to replicate so will be available soon please keep an eye on my listings. • Pen test. 100% pass no problem! • Serial numbers. All the same currently but i am working on getting more. I will send samples same day so you should receive it(When I Get More)
1-2 days UK

Custom orders will be available soon.

Larger orders will sent via courier or royal mail special delivery and will be hidden well. I have just one rule... Be cool! If you have any issues with the notes or the service just get in touch. I'm a nice person and

 When I shop at home, when they are not, 9/10, you will look at it. I have been with my friends for a month and the one gave me more than a glass. If you are not, I had you between £1000-£2000 a day. I did this myself with my first batch which were far from perfect but it made
