Based in North-West Kent, we are a friendly, long-running and successful business that completes small and large building, decorating and property maintenance projects both inside and outside the home. We offer a variety of services including extensions, kitchen and bathroom makeovers, landscaping, patios and driveways, interior and exterior decorating and tiling. In a nutshell, we can meet all your needs from large scale renovation projects to designing and decorating a room. We pride ourselves on building relationships so that you will feel comfortable in using us again and recommending us to your friends and family. This type of business is our bread and butter. We recognise that your home and garden is important to you, which is why we treat it with the upmost care and attention, completing each project to your exact requirements to ensure you are happy with the finished look.
