The Suzuki Hayabusa has possibly the most powerful production engine of its' time quoting 194.bhp and 115ftlb of torque. The motorcycle isn't restricted in the lower gears its full power all the way to the 186mph speed limiter. Fully adjustable suspension front and rear. 3-way power switch limiting power. It's not just a gimmick you really notice the difference between the power modes, making the Hayabusa less of an animal than it should be.
