I brought this Matt Black Xbox One for £200 a month ago but it's not for me. It's as good as new and comes with the original box, leads (inc. HDMI) and a rechargeable battery pack (the lead is around 3m in length but has a slit in it which has been taped around with electrical tape - works fine). Only a month old so everything is in excellent condition. I can deliver locally at no extra charge. The trial for each access you can see in the picture isn't.
