Hi, I'm David, a passionate and experienced musician who likes to share all the possibilities of this art with people. It could be during a concert, a lesson or a jam for example, but in my opinion, the most important thing is that music is not a matter of contest or exam. Above all else, music is a way to send messages, to dream and to make people dream. Musicality is the main feature of my lessons. I don't like my pupils to learn hard exercises like a machine. I prefer to find a simple and playful way to be musical. You can sound great whatever your level. I like to teach everybody: you can be a child, an adult or an extra-terrestrial, between 2 and 200 years old. Everyone is capable of mastering music. I'm attentive to my pupils and I do the best I can to make them proud of themselves. I teach electric, acoustic, classical and bass guitar. I also play the drums. When I play in a band, it's important to me to know what my buddies are feeling and their place within the band and the music. If I can feel what they feel it inspires me in my own instrument. This is the art of music that I hope to impart to my pupils. I have played with many different bands (Soul, Hip hop, Groove, Rock, Blues, Funk, Reggae, Jazz, Folk, Chanson Française...) and I spent five beautiful years teaching guitar and bass in French schools. ;
