I am an experienced and highly qualified English tutor with a Master's degree in Translation and Interpreting and a first degree in English language and linguistics. I have extensive experience of living and working abroad, and I have a natural-born ability to interact with people.

For the last 3 years I have taught English in Italy, England, Germany and Russia. I have supported students in their aim to attend independent schools and universities in the UK and prepared them for the entrance exams. I have also helped several professionals (e.g. lawyers, journalists, CEOs) improve their English communication skills at work. They all achieved high degree of success.

My lessons boosted their confidence and enabled them to communicate effectively in international business contexts. I am able to tailor their tuition to keep students engaged and promote learning. I am relaxed and informal in my approach and I aim to provide a positive learning environment, where learners can be comfortable and relaxed.

I offer a free Skype lesson 30/45 minutes to get to know each other and learn more about my lessons.

Rates for Skype lessons: 13£ for a 45-minute lesson 17£ EUR for a 60-minute lesson

Look forward to hearing from you!
