The Dalbury from Hillside Leisure is a micro camper built on a Nissan NV200. The layout is based on the traditional camper side conversion. Being no larger than a medium saloon car and having great fuel economy makes it ideal for your everyday drive, day van or camper that you can fit in a standard garage. It comes with swivel front passenger seat and a rear RIB seat with seatbelts that converts to a double bed in seconds. Other features include a 2-burner gas hob, 39 litre fridge, removeable table, on-board water tank LED lighting and 85amp leisure battery. A brilliant camper with exceptional build-quality.
