A. Rowan Photo studio is located in Lincoln, in Bailgate near the Lincoln Castle. It can be booked for individual, family or group photography sessions. There are dressing facilities so you are free to bring as many changes of clothes as you wish with standard sessions lasting between one and two hours. After your session, you will be emailed a password to your own private client gallery and we will upload the edited images from your session within 48 hours. You can order digital download images and standard size prints (Up to A0) directly from the website. Digital download images will be supplied at 300 dpi. We also provide canvases, acrylics, framed prints and a variety of packages. Prices are listed here. Location Shoots We are also happy to arrange a location shoot, at a place that holds special memories for you and your family, or we can visit you at home. There is only a surcharge for locations 50+ miles from Lincoln. Contact information found.
