Aquatots Swimming Ltd is an independent baby swim school that has taught over 12,000 children life-saving and swimming skills for the past 18 years. Unfortunately too many young children drown in the UK so it is very important to teach safety skills and water confidence at an early age.

All babies are born with a natural ability to swim and have a real affinity with water. With over 18 years of experience the Aquatots Foundation programme has been carefully designed to teach you and your baby lifesaving skills and water confidence in a calm and soothing environment.
