ALFIE is a healthy, physically stunning & classical looking, intelligent Jack Russell - Miniature Border Collie cross dog, with a wonderful temperament, who is looking for a lovely lady "Jack", with whom he can breed and have a litter. He has been raised with, and thus is great and sociable, around other dogs (of all sizes), cats, and even mice! His attitude is fantastic: very loving, loyal and incredibly gentle, if not even "delicate"! His mixed breeding has produced an amazing dog that carries / shows all of the best traits associated with each breed, for example loyalty, defensiveness, (he loves his Mumy!), intelligence and ability to learn new things FAST! Yes, it's true that he's just 8 yrs old, but he looks incredibly good for his age and still acts, behaves and moves like he's 2. (His favourite thing in the world is chasing tennis balls from his ball launcher! - He's very agile and adept at catching balls in mid-air indeed!) In all of his 8 years, he has been "sick" only a handful of times and has only required veterinary attention twice in his life! (Although he's not strictly a pedigree dog he most definitely has a "pedigree" record of health!) His pick of one male pup would be a definite requirement but I am willing to the lady dog for allowing Alfie the chance to breed with her instead of, the usual, asking for payment for the stud's services! ;
