Triumphs' profile of this bike Twin pea shooter exhausts, two-tone paint and that Triumph embossed seat say "classic British motorcycle" but while the T100 may look like its come straight out of "the day", the technology and ride experience most definitely do not. If your looking for a bike that oozes style & sophistication then the T100 Bonneville from Triumph will most definately be on your possibilities list for your next bike. The retro style has fiercely come back to fashion in recent years with all age groups enjoying the fruits of older style and the T100 has to be at the forefront of that genre and is the connoisseur's choice. Everything looks authentic even down to the colour scheme's used for this model the green and cream paint is very rich and smooth that simply adds to the indulgence this bike offers. This is a gentleman, an easy rider, a quiet Sunday of bikes but one that will guarantee lots of head turning and attention. A retro leather jacket, turned up jeans and you really are good to go. This bike rides superb, it maintains a cruising speed well, feels very safe and secure when cornering and is generally just a pleasure to ride.
