If you like your bikes to have a look of an Enduro or Super Motard then this Aprilia will tick all the boxes for you, and it stands out even more as it's finished in black and white with matching black wheels. These bikes are always loaded as they come out of the factory with Brembo radial brakes with ABS, hand guards, traction control and engine maps, but the previous owner decided to add to the bike with a Puig tinted screen, Aprilia folding race levers and an R&G tail tidy.
