Stroll along Skegness promenade with an ice cream or have fun seeing it on two wheels, before grabbing a picnic and heading on down to the beach for a spot of sandcastle making or kite flying. Don't forget to visit the Gibraltar point the scenic nature reserve which stretches along the beach. And, of course, there's the fun fairs such as pleasure beach and fantasy island with rides and fun for all the family. Enjoy an afternoon tea overlooking the panorama of the Bay, treat yourself to a glass of wine in the Lakeview restaurant, and visit the stunning embassy theatre where all the latest shows and acts perform. Time to eat? There's plenty of scope for ice cream, fish and chips and other seaside fare whilst you amble along the seafront, but if you prefer to eat indoors then there's an array of cafes and restaurants to tempt your taste buds. Just up the road lies Skegness Aquarium and Natureland, where family-friendly attractions complement the atmosphere of the exciting and intriguing views of the deep sea. Pedal boats, mini golf, trampolines, a miniature train, a splash park and a skate park will keep the kids amused whilst you enjoy the park's landscaped surroundings. For rainy-day entertainment, visit Skegness Superbowl or the Tower Cinema, both conveniently situated right next to the seafront. In the evening, If you're in the mood for shopping, visit the Hildreds centre and gift shops. The town centre offers high street shopping.
