Wood Street Indoor Market is a charming horseshoe shaped market with two entrances. Wood Street Market was once a huge local cinema and now houses a variety of unusual and interesting independent shops, including several retro and vintage shops, selling men's and women's vintage clothes, beautiful vintage handbags, costume jewellery, accessories, kitsch bar ware, vintage toys and posters, plus football memorabilia. The market has 3 established record shops for vinyl records, CDs, and tapes. There's also a cool Moroccan emporium, spiritual healing, wedding & events planner, costume and evening wear hire service, picture framing, cake decorators, gifts, antiques, glassware, decorative art, expert jewel, watch and clock jewel repairs, sweet shop selling classic and modern confectionery, costume and evening wear hire, bespoke vintage repairs and alterations, spiritual healing, second handbooks, and more. Wood Street Market even has a vintage hair dresser. Complete your vintage shopping experience by visiting Hillman's Servery for teas, coffee, light lunches and mouth watering homemade cakes, while enjoying lovely 30's and 40's music in the background. Join us please - come on down to Wood Street Indoor Market, East London's hidden gem, still going strong after more than 40 years, it's off the beaten track, better than shopping on line & the many vintage shops are the best around.
