A larger selection of assorted building/drainage items - 26 pieces in total. They have been described as used because they are a bit dirty through storage and do not have any original packaging, however most, if not all, have never been used. I am not a builder, neither do I know the value of these items. They were amongst many items found in the shed when clearing my late elderly mother-in-law's house. I am unsure of what to call each item/how to describe them so you are welcome to come and look at them before buying. Some of the drain covers are quite heavy. Open to a near offer.;
