I am looking for a self-employed, highly experienced seamstress/sewing machinist, able to cut, sew and finish garments from scratch to a very high standard for a high-end womenswear brand.

Looking for someone who can work from home (smoke-free environment) or place of business with own equipment including an industrial sewing machine and overlocker. The work will be paid by finished piece and the work load can be flexible.

This would be ideal for someone who would prefer to work in their own home, or as an additional job for extra income

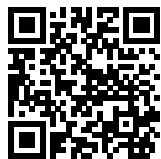

Experience working with high end fabrics including silk crepes, jerseys and velvet's essential.

Experience in the fashion garment industry ideal and have a very keen eye for detail and an exceptional quality of work.

Ultimately, the candidate must be reliable and confident in delivering a very high standard of production and.
