

We are a non profit group based in Oxfordshire and Berkshire. Our team is made up of believers, skeptics, skeptical believers, mediums and sensitives. While investigating, we use scientific methods which involve using audio and visual equipment alongside our mediums and sensitives. We are experienced with several years behind us as individuals, and have investigated locations such as pubs, hotels, airfields, museums and private houses. If you believe that your home or workplace may need investigating, please do not hesitate to contact
