* Very near offers considered. Please call to chat * Learner-legal 125 V-Twin, perfect for taller riders or those looking for the look, feel and presence of a big bike while preparing for the full license (it's as big as my Bandit 600). Powerful enough to happily cruise at 65-70MPH. Starts first time and runs faultlessly. A couple of insignificant knocks to the bodywork, hence the price. Everything else is perfect. New (eight miles ago) genuine Honda chain and sprocket set, new battery, new front inner tube, brakes serviced, new oil and filter, recent front tyre. I've only had this bike for a month as I used it for practicing for my DAS. Plenty of work done in that month to maintain the bike as I was expecting to not retake the test and keep it for the winter. Cash on collection and before any test ride. Located in Crowborough, East Sussex (main line from London Bridge). 5+ owners, Next MOT due 10/07/2017, Part service history, 2 keys, Electric start. SILVER, £1
