December 3-4, 10-11, 17-18 Victorian Christmas Join us as we celebrate a traditional Victorian Christmas at the London Museum of Water & Steam. Families can sing along at our Jolly Jingle Bells sessions on Saturdays and hear traditional Victoria Christmas stories on Sundays. Kids can have great fun searching for missing puddings around the Museum as well create their own Victorian card or Christmas angel. To complete the festive treat the Snowball Express, our real Steam Locomotive will be giving rides all day. It's the perfect treat before heading into our charming café for mulled wine & homemade mince pies. The event is free with standard museum admission prices. All activities are drop in. Storytime and Jingle Bells sessions run from 11.30 – 12.15 at the weekends and are suitable for children aged 1-8. Buy tickets online at www.waterandsteam.org
