London Lessons offers Brazilian Portuguese, Italian and Spanish lessons via Skype with qualified and experienced teachers.

Brazilian Portuguese:

Our Brazilian Portuguese teacher has a degree from Brazil in Languages (English- Portuguese) and qualifications from the UK - A City & Guilds Teaching Training Course, and OCR Diploma for teaching languages to adults, amongst others.

He is from Sao Paulo (Southeast of Brazil) and teaches at all levels, from beg to advanced.

We use our own Brazilian Portuguese grammar book, called DIA A DIA by Edinaldo E. Santo, available on amazon or Waterstones.

Spanish teacher:

Our Spanish teacher is actually Italian, but his Spanish is as good as his Italian. He has qualifications from Italy and experience teaching Italian and Spanish in Italy and in the UK. He uses handouts for his lessons, which he will email the students, but he is also happy to adopt and advise on a book, if you prefer.

Italian Teachers:

We use a variety of resources to teach you and give extremely emphasis to conversation, to speed up the learning process, but still helping you to develop all the other skills and explaining grammar whenever necessary.

Fees for Skype lessons are £23 per hour, which you can pay per lesson or in block of 10 lessons paid in advance with a £10 discount from the total.

You can pay for your lessons with Paypal or BACs.

Please, send us an email to book a lesson or visit one of our websites
