Hello I am looking for a investor or a group of investors. The plan is simple we require £150,000 to renovate and purchase the new development. I plan on purchasing a disused building and bring it to life. I am offering £50,000 return on the initial £150,00 investment within 18 months, so you could make £200,000 well within the 18 month period. I am willing to answer any question or enquiry please feel free to contact me i am available 24/7 and aim to reply within a few hours. I cannot reveal the exact location of the new development due to it being highly confidential material. I know this is a long shot but I can't raise the finance required through the normal channels. I am 100 percent genuine and I have a incredible plan and I would really appreciate if anyone can offer any assistance or even guidance would be humbly appreciated please contact me for more information.
