A present Learn and Speak French, tuitions tailored to your needs with a native french

Location   Scotland, West Lothian
https://www.freeadsz.co.uk/x-466708-z

What would be your best experience in learning French? What's important for you? I offer private tuitions to suit all levels and projects. I design interactive, creative and practical courses to motivate and inspire every learner. I use different methods, medias and approaches tailored to your needs and interests. You'll improve your skills and build your confidence easily. You get plenty of attention in your speaking, listening, writing and reading practice with a lot of good fun! I'm a French native speaker with 21 years teaching experience, I'm also a tutor for teachers and I've got a master degree in teaching French as a foreign language. I'm pleased to share my skills with everyone interested in learning French. I can teach French for children (with special activities for them), for teens and students (homeworks, exams), for adults, whatever your projects (holidays,jobs, exams, daily conversations, ...) See you soon Any request? Don't hesitate! Send me a message   Sandrine