For sale - my Triumph Daytona 675R in metallic pearlescent white. This is a 2014 registration bike. I have owned it from new and it is in immaculate condition with a full service history. This bike has done less than 4000 miles. It is completely standard except for the carbon effect wrapping that I have added to the lower fairings. This cost me £200, was done by a guy who works on F1 cars and is a very good match for the real carbon fibre mudguards and trims that come as standard on this model. Being the R to model it also comes with full Ohlins suspension front and rear and Brembo monoblock brakes which are the best I have ever had on any bike I have ridden/owned in my 20 years of riding. It also has a factory fitted quickshifter which is simply stunning! After having a bike with one of these I never want to own a bike without a one again! This is also without doubt the best road bike I have ever owned. The engine is so smooth and fuelling is perfect. This bike is so easy to ride quickly and I've had no problem leaving bigger bikes trailing during ride outs on the roads. I have never taken this bike on track but I am sure it would perform well here too going by the track racing success these bikes have had. I am selling this bike reluctantly as we desperately need a new family car for the winter. These bikes retail at £10,950 new (just gone up I think). This bike is in showroom condition, carefully run in and well looked after so would be nothing less than a massive saving on a new bike without the hassle of having to run it in. It has had a service and new Pirelli Diablo Rosso tyres within the last 500 miles. I am looking for £8,499 for this bike which would be a real bargain for someone genuinely interested buying one of these bikes. Please do not contact me with silly offers as I have already been offered £7,800 as a trade in. These bikes do keep their value due to the high factory spec. Please, no offers from trade dealers - I am not interested. Thank you for looking. I challenge you to find a bad review for one of these bikes!;
