On the Road

"We did not wait for the sunrise to come. Straight from the casino we took the road to the city of Nikopolis. Fond of gambling Adele made her bet on a bottle of Irish whiskey. She was convinced we were to pass the Mountains by the morrow. The hitch-hiking, she explained was the pinnacle of aerobatics in a classical tradition which I wouldn't have been able to know had it been my strongest desire as is hers. Native, American. And while we were walking toward the "Chernomorets" camp side she was hummily storytelling about Ken Kesey and his "madcap-friends" who exactly fifty years ago started an epic journey to the Western coast." -
