Hi, I'm Clara Depont, a qualified, friendly, & professional voice & theory coach of adults & children, specializing in Soul/Pop/R&B/Jazz & Rock. I've been teaching for 13 years and now live in New York.

Get to the heart of what you want from your lessons fast with an expert who cares which practices work for you personally. www.newyorksingingcoach.com Sing better, Develop confidence, Have more presence on & off stage, Improve your public speaking skills, Increase your range, Relax & have fun, Explore your creative side, Reduce vocal fatigue, Understand your voice better, Improve your ear, Stand taller

Learn the theory behind the notes if you want to. Hold your own and communicate better with other musicians or study for ABRSM exams. I accept students from beginner to advanced and have extensive experience working with children and adults with special needs.

Through studying your favorite songs you can learn technique, musicality, songwriting or music theory according to your personal objectives each lesson.

I've been teaching privately and working in schools since 2003 and I trained in Music Performance at London College of Music and Media then Education at Leeds Beckett University..

I am also a personal development coach with a whole host of strategies and insights to help you develop confidence and reach your singing goals while learning your favorite songs.

My advice to singing with you.

My friend recommended Clara for singing lessons. Her teaching style is flexible, encouraging and supportive. I have learnt a great deal from her. Clara herself has a great voice and a fantastic personality. Cleo

"My singing lessons with Clara have been absolutely brilliant. She has restored my confidence which was shattered more than 50 years ago when my music teacher at school told me to mime in music lessons as I was putting the rest of the class out of tune. I come out of her lessons with a real buzz feeling that, within my limited range, I can sing. The lessons are tailored to meet my needs and, with her positive and humorous approach, they are great fun. I really enjoy myself and look forward to them as she has a very practical way of delivering her lessons with good ideas about how I can improve. Highly recommended."

"My daughter (11) had singing lessons and she really loved them, it was really good for her confidence which grew massively and she now auditions for singing parts at school which she would not do before. Clara was great with her, very patient and understanding and really did get the best out of her."
